Refugees and the Law in Challenging Times – A Law and Economics Approach

Acknowledgment

I want to thank all those people who made this book possible and an unforgettable experience for me. First of all, I would like to express my most profound sense of gratitude to all the institutions that funded this research, in particular, Erasmus+ Jean Monnet EU Center of Excellence in Europeanization of Public Policies in Albania (ERASMUS-JMO-2021-HEI-TCH-RSCH) (Project number: 101048064 - EPPAL), Albanian National Chamber of Advocacy, with its president, Prof. Dr. Maksim R. Haxhia, and Minerva Center for the Rule of Law under Extreme Conditions at the University of Haifa (Israel). This monograph is considered a scientific monograph from the basic unit of the University College Bedër (Tirana, Albania) with decision no. 1 of 20.06.2024 and the relative meeting 2024/012.

In addition, I would like to express my appreciation for the comments and suggestions given by several excellent international scholars during the preparation of this book, in particular, Prof. Dr. Eli M. Salzberger and Prof. Dr. Michael G. Faure.

I thank my colleague and friends—Prof. Dr. Maksim R. Haxhia, Assoc. Prof. Ervin Pupe, Assoc. Prof. Enkelejda Koka, and PhD Gentjan Skara—for the stimulating discussions we have had in the last years, as well as all the reviews Prof. Dr. Thomas Eger, Prof. Dr. Paolo Vanin, and Prof. Dr. Louis Visscher, who gave brilliant comments and suggestions during the first revision of this monograph.

Last but not least, I would like to thank my family: my parents, Resmije and Ylli, and my brother, Erzim, for supporting me spiritually throughout the writing this monograph.
